Sculpture of a Sailboat on a wave, in Murano glass.

DESCRIPTION

Sculpture in Murano glass, made using the Massello and Canna techniques.

Maestro Tagliapietra pays a tribute to all the beautiful sailboats that flock to the lagoon during summer, gently plowing through the waves and bringing their bright colors in Venice.

The main body is made with massello Murano glass. The stripes in different colors are obtained with the Canne technique.

Hanmade in Murano by Andrea Tagliapietra, following the ancient Murano glass techniques.

Colors and size may slightly vary since each product differs from the other, hence unique. This is to be considered as a proof of craftmanship.
