

TREE WITH TRANSPARENT BIRDS

$1,158.53

Crystal branch with small birds

DESCRIPTION

Finally, nature invades our home, bringing joy and color.

To celebrate the spring that has just begun and the birds return to sing to life, we have chosen these objects.

Glass is a material that has the particularity of being eternal and maintaining its brilliance forever.

This is the wish we want to give to those who decide to treat themselves to this object.
