Red Bull with Murrine Big Size - Murano Glass

DESCRIPTION

"Manolete" Bull entirely handmade in the island of Murano, Venice. This large bull is made of solid glass and includes the insertion of murrine that gives magic and elegance. The beauty of this sculpture lies in the attention to detail and proportions. The name of the bull "Huracan" recalls the aggressiveness and power of the famous Spanish bull and this is because the beautiful Murano glass bull was made in a natural attack position. It is certainly one of the pieces that impress the most for their importance and originality. The work is signed and is sent with the certificate of authenticity
