$795.45

Lion of Saint Mark the Evangelist, symbol of Venice

DESCRIPTION

It is the symbol of Saint Mark, Patron of Venice and the Most Serene Republic. If you walk around Venice - and every other place that was under Venetian rule - you will find this winged lion everywhere. Now you can have in your home directly from Murano. We could not but pay homage to our glorious history and to this symbol of progress, freedom and democracy. Here's the lion of San Marco in Murano glass, available in 4 colours: crystal & gold, amber & gold, all gold, gold with air bubbles and also in two different sizes. Handmade in Murano by Arte di Murano following the ancient techniques. Any small defects or slight difference in size as hereby indicated is due to the hand-made processing.
