Murano glass tropical fish

DESCRIPTION

Murano glass tropical fish with two horizontal purple bands. This sculpture represents one of the symbols of Venice: the fish. It's in fact the town's shape. One of the peculiarities that make Venice so unique. Designed and hand made in Murano by Elio Raffaelli for Ars Murano, following the ancient techniques. As for all the handmade products, this fish is one-of-a-kind; any small variations are typical and a proof of its hand-made processing. Signed at the bottom.
