Klimt Glass - Penholder with murrinas

DESCRIPTION

Klimt glass that can be used also as a penholder.

Glass obtained melting together under heat of the typical murrinas of Murano.

The Glass Master took inspiration from Gustav Klimt's paintings.

The murrinas are inserted one by one.

A golden leaf, is the final touch in making of each glass a precious and unique artistic glass work .

Due to the peculiarity of the technique, each piece is absolutely unique as pattern. When needed, we can provide a picture of the colours available before sending it to you.
