

SCAVO VASE BLUE

$1,215.23

Vase in blown Murano glass. Its peculiar look is due to the "scavo" technique that makes it look antique.

DESCRIPTION

Old-looking vase in blown Murano glass. This peculiar vase has been enriched treating its surface with the scavo technique. The result is a sunning old-looking appearance. See also the red version: click here.

Bisazza, known for producing top of the line mosaic tiles, is also known for their art objects of the highest quality. This vase belongs to the 'Archeologica' collection and is designed to make it look as if it were rescued from an archeological dig in ancient Pompeii. Bisazza vases are hard to come by, as most people who purchase them keep them, and they are considered museum pieces.

Hand-made in Murano following the ancient Murano glass techniques by the atelier Bisazza in Murano.